Reveal the future

Sunday 14 September, at 7:15pm

The prophet Daniel predicted the rise and fall of nations 2,500 years in advance. History has been following his prophecies like a blueprint. The state of Europe today specifically reveals the accuracy of his predictions.

Mark Finley has spent more than 35 years preaching, teaching, and presenting lifestyle lectures. Author of more than 70 books, teaching manuals, and articles, he is also a speaker for Hope Channel. He recently recorded Dublin asks tough questions about God, a web-based series of interviews which can be found at cityofhope.ie.

Ernestine Finley, popular speaker and author of the Natural Lifestyle Cooking cookbook, will present practical, scientifically sound health features during each programme that will enable you to live a longer, happier and healthier life.

Children's programme each evening.

Learn about discoveries centuries old as they reveal the truth of the Bible.

The crumbling ruins of past civilisations speak to us today.

The prophecies of Revelation pinpoint the twenty-first century. Discover what is really going on behind the scenes of world affairs and be prepared for what will break upon this world as an overwhelming surprise.

Our society is confronted with overwhelming problems such as unemployment, a troubled economy, rising crime, drug and divorce rates. Bible prophecy provides hope for our troubled world. You can face the future with greater confidence.
