

Dear

I have a loyal commitment to actively and lovingly pursue you with goodness and mercy, not once in a while but all the days of your life. I do this because I want to have a relationship with you. My goodness and mercy are never stopping, never giving up, cannot be broken and always. My goodness will supply your needs while My mercy will forgive your sins.

There are many instances in the bible where My goodness and mercy can be seen such as the time when Rahab helped the Israelites even though she was not one of My followers.

Somewhere along the way, she had heard about my goodness and mercy, so when the two spies sought shelter in her home, she bravely bargained for her life. She confessed her belief in Me and asked for mercy, and she and her family were saved when they returned to attack Jericho. In fact, she lived with the Israelites and faithfully served Me the rest of her days.

While there are many things you cannot be sure of, the one thing you CAN be sure of is My goodness and mercy when you place your trust in me.

Love Forever

God

P.S.

Maybe you can read 1 Chronicles 16:34 before going to bed.

For Arts and Craft maybe you can do the Rahab helped the spies activity. Instructions are as follows:

1. Colour the picture of Rahab and the spies.
2. Cut out the dotted strip with the spies.
3. Cut along the 2 dotted lines below Rahab's window.
4. Insert the strip with the spies in through the bottom line then out the top line as shown in the example.
5. Pull the strip up and down and see Rahab helping the spies out the window and be reminded that Rahab and her whole family were saved because of my goodness and mercy. So can you.
